acceptance of the Presidentship by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

During the hundred and five years of its existence, the Academy has laboured steadfastly to achieve the objects of its Founders. Its work in the cause of musical education has been carried on with the help of many eminent musicians and lovers of music under the direction of its former Principals, Dr. William Crotch, 1823; Mr. Cipriani Potter, 1832; Mr. Charles Lucas, 1859; Sir William Sterndale Bennett, 1866; Sir George A. Macfarren, 1875; and Sir Alexander Campbell Mackenzie, 1888.

The Royal Academy of Music originally started in 1823 with a studentship of only twenty. From that year onwards there has been a steady and continuous increase in the number on the roll.

To-day there are approximately one thousand students, whose work is directed and guided by a staff of over one hundred and fifty Professors.

Of the large number who, during the hundred odd years' life of the Academy, have received their training within its walls, many have attained to positions of eminence and distinction, not only in the British Empire, but in all parts of the world.

During the period extending from March, 1823, to July, 1911, the work of the Academy was carried on at Tenterden Street, Hanover Square, beginning with one house and adding others as the number of pupils increased, until at last six houses were absorbed and no further extension could be made. The need for more commodious and more suitable premises having become urgent, the Governing Bodies secured a new site in the Marylebone Road, and the foundation stone of the new building was laid by the late Lord Strathcona on July 14th, 1910. The building being completed, the work of the Academy was transferred to it in time to begin the new session at Michaelmas, 1911. The building was formally opened by H.R.H. Prince Arthur of Connaught on Saturday, June 22nd, 1912. The Academy is centrally situated and easily reached; it is near the termini of three main lines (viz., Great Western, London and North-Eastern, and London, Midland and Scottish Railways), and is easily accessible by the various "Tubes" and omnibus services.

A most important and useful addition to the resources and equipment of the Academy has recently been completed, and was formally opened by the President, H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, on Tuesday, October 19th, 1926. On a site immediately adjoining the main Academy building there has been erected an extension containing a small rehearsal theatre seating about two hundred in the auditorium and equipped with stage and sunk orchestra, and a lecture room which seats about one hundred and fifty people. Although these do not materially increase the earning power of the Academy, they provide much needed facilities for carrying on work specially important in the training of our students. The Opera and Dramatic Classes, the Ensemble Classes and the Teachers' Training Course have all benefited, and increased efficiency and comfort have followed from the new and improved conditions under which their work is done.

CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT.

The Academy is incorporated by Royal Charters, granted June 23rd, 1830, and November 29th, 1910, and, as provided therein, is governed by a President, four Vice-Presidents, Board of Directors, Committee of Management, Chairman, and Treasurer, all of whom are elected from among the members of the body corporate. Acting under these are the Principal and the executive officials.

Membership in the Corporation is unlimited, and all classes of Subscribing Members are eligible for election on the Directorate and the Committee of Management.

Subscribers have the privilege of being present at and of introducing friends to all public concerts and distributions of awards, etc., so far as space and other circumstances permit. Annual subscriptions are due on January 1st.

STAFF.

The work of the Academy is carried on by a body of Professors at present of the number of one hundred and fifty.

Advisory Boards are chosen from the whole staff to consider and assist the Principal with reference to technical questions arising out of the various subjects studied in the Academy. At the present time, there are six of these Boards, which meet regularly throughout the Academic Year:—

- (1) Harmony and Aural Training.
- (2) Singing.
- (3) Pianoforte.
- (4) Stringed Instruments.
- (5) Organ.
- (6) Elocution.

For a list of Professors see pp. 7 to 9.

SUPERANNUATION FUND.

In 1925 a Superannuation Fund on a contributory basis was established for the benefit of the Professorial and Clerical Staffs of the Royal Academy of Music.

Under this scheme, any member of these staffs who reaches the retiring age enters into the enjoyment of a Pension, the annual payments of which, if so desired, can be commuted for a proportionate single payment.

THE PHILIP LESLIE AGNEW FUND.

Through the sympathetic generosity of the Chairman of the Committee of Management a Fund was established on the 22nd September, 1927, the purposes of which—to quote the governing declaration of trust—are :—

“For exceptional expenditure in such manner as the Committee of Management may from time to time consider conducive to the artistic work of the Academy including temporary financial assistance of any member of the Professional or Clerical Staffs or any Student or employee of the Academy in the opinion of the Committee of Management in need of such assistance. Generally for the promotion of the objects for which the Academy was incorporated in such manner as the Committee of Management may from time to time decide, but subject to the following limitations (that is to say) no part of the dividends or income of the fund shall be applied in or towards: Payment of the Tuition Fees of Students of the Academy; The provision of Scholarships or Prizes or other awards for proficiency; Defraying the ordinary current expenses of the Academy.”

The attention of the Student is also drawn to the Special Regulations, 1928—1929, applicable for the current year on p. 19 at the end of the Calendar.

SOCIAL INTERESTS AND GENERAL ACTIVITIES.

Besides attending the compulsory lessons and classes of the curriculum, a Student will derive much benefit and stimulus from mingling in the corporate life of the Academy and by taking part in at least some of the following social interests and general activities. The cultivation of a good spirit of team work is actively encouraged by the Academy Authorities.

With the exception of the R.A.M. Club (particulars of which can be obtained from the Hon. Secretary of the Club), the Student is afforded the opportunity of taking part in the following without any extra fee:—

(a) The Senior Orchestra.—Such Students as pass an examination in technique, tone and sight-reading, play in this Orchestra on Tuesday and Friday afternoons from two to five o'clock.

All Students are encouraged to attend these rehearsals, even those who do not play in the Orchestra, since valuable advice on orchestral playing and musical interpretation can be obtained, and a large knowledge of the orchestral repertoire acquired.

Students who are sufficiently advanced can, on the recommendation of their Professors, play Concertos and sing Arias and Songs with Orchestral Accompaniment. Students whose Principal Study is Conducting (see p. 29) when sufficiently advanced may be afforded the opportunity of conducting the Senior Orchestra.

(b) The Conductors' Orchestra.—This meets on Friday mornings from ten o'clock to one, for such Students as are not sufficiently advanced to play in the Senior Orchestra.

Students whose Principal Study is Conducting have the opportunity of gaining practical experience by conducting this Orchestra in prepared works.

(c) The Ensemble Classes.—These classes are held for the purpose of enabling Students to obtain practice in ensemble playing of all kinds. A permanent string quartet has been formed for the special purpose of affording pianists the opportunity of practising ensemble works in which the Pianoforte is an important factor.

Students are encouraged to play Chamber Music amongst themselves; and also to perform, at the discretion of their professors, at the various Concerts held during the Academic Year. Opportunities are given to all Students at the Academy of hearing Chamber Music, and amongst other recent features of the class may be mentioned the performance during the Academic year 1927–28, of the complete String Quartets (eighty-three in all) of Haydn.

(d) The Opera Class.—The Study of Opera is carried on in the Royal Academy of Music as an adjunct to the training of Singers, all of whom are expected to take part in this class when sufficiently advanced. The Class meets on Mondays and Thursdays from ten to one o'clock in the Duke's Rehearsal Theatre.

Frequent performances of both Grand and Light Opera take place in the Academy Theatre and elsewhere throughout the year, and it is the object of the Class to enable every properly qualified Student to obtain experience in all kinds of rôles—principal and secondary. Advanced Students are given opportunities of acquiring experience in producing and stage-managing.

(e) The Dramatic Class.—The Dramatic Class meets on Thursdays during the Academic Year from ten to one o'clock. Plays, both classical and modern, are rehearsed and when ready are performed at the end of each term in the Duke's Rehearsal Theatre. Advanced Students have opportunities of acting as producers and stage-managers at public performances.

(f) The Choirs.—The Choirs meet on Tuesdays at 5.30 p.m. (Special Choir) and Wednesdays at 4 p.m. (General Choir) for the purposes of rehearsing and preparing Choral Works, both a capella and accompanied.

A Class for Church Choir Training is also held on Mondays at 12.15 p.m.

(g) The R.A.M. Club.—The R.A.M. Club was founded in 1889, with the object of promoting friendly intercourse between those who are connected with the Royal Academy of Music. Meetings—Social and Musical—are held periodically, and the R.A.M. Club Magazine, published each term, is sent to all members.

Past and present Students, Professors, and some others are eligible for membership. Further particulars may be obtained from the Hon. Secretary of the Club, at the Royal Academy of Music.

Present Students may belong to the "Students' Branch" which arranges Social and Sports meetings.

LADY SUPERINTENDENT.

All Students and the pupils are under the care of Mrs. Whiting, the Lady Superintendent, to whom they can refer at any time.

HOSTELS FOR STUDENTS.

There is no accommodation in the Academy for resident Students. For the convenience of Parents, Guardians and Students, a list of persons who are desirous of receiving Students as boarders is available. References as to the fitness and respectability of these persons have been received by the Academy, but the Committee of Management has no authority or control over them, and cannot accept any responsibility with reference to the establishments concerned. This list is open to inspection at all times, and a copy thereof will be sent to the parents or friends of intending Students on application to the Secretary.

THE RESTAURANT

STUDENTS' RESTAURANT.

Luncheons, teas, and light refreshments are obtainable at moderate prices (tariff is displayed at the restaurant door) at all times during Academy hours, the arrangements for the Restaurant being under the supervision of the House Committee.

Vouchers may be obtained, to any required value, from the Cash desk provided for that purpose in the Centre of the Restaurant, as no money is taken at the Counters.

STUDENTS' PRACTICE.

Owing to want of space, general practice cannot be permitted at the Academy. As far as possible arrangements are made for Organ Students to practise; all enquiries re these arrangements should be made in the General Office (Room 6).

STUDENTS' AID FUND.

It is open to any person to assist students by paying the whole or any portion of their fees, by subscribing to the Students' Aid Fund, or by founding Exhibitions.

The Students' Aid Fund consists of a Capital sum of about £2,538, contributed in the course of the last thirty-five years by friends of the Academy and patrons of the Art, the interest on which is advanced for the purpose of reducing the fees of deserving students.

In administering this Fund—which is all too small to meet the demands made on it—the most careful consideration is paid to the circumstances and qualifications of each beneficiary.

While the eventual repayment of the sums advanced is not made a condition of benefit, the Committee of Management welcome all efforts made to testify in this practical manner to the value and usefulness of the Fund.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

The holder of any Scholarship or Exhibition is ineligible for future competitions for that particular Scholarship or Exhibition.

The award of any Scholarship or Exhibition is subject to the acceptance by the candidate of the General Regulations of the Academy and of the curriculum arranged by the Principal.

There are seventy-two Scholarships and Exhibitions in active operation at present. They are obtainable by competition, and are tenable in accordance with the General Regulations of the Academy (see pages 32 to 34). Except where the contrary is stated, both Students and Non-Students are eligible. As a rule, they are tenable for three years; but the conditions of competition and tenure vary in accordance with the wishes of the respective founders. Full particulars and entry forms are obtainable on application to the Secretary about ten weeks prior to the respective dates of the competitions. The holder of any R.A.M. or Associated Board Scholarship or Exhibition is, during its tenure, ineligible to hold any other Scholarship or Exhibition. The holder of a Scholarship is subject to periodical examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, the Committee may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof. No departure from or alteration in the foregoing rules can be made except by special resolution of the Committee of Management.

TEACHERS' TRAINING COURSE (T.T.C.).

All Students who wish to enter the Teaching Profession are strongly advised to prepare themselves for Registration by the Teachers Registration Council, 47, Bedford Square, W.C. 1.

One of the essentials for Registration is attendance for one Academic Year at a Teachers' Training Course. See Special Syllabus which may be obtained from the Secretary of the R.A.M.

Students of the R.A.M. who satisfy the Principal or Warden as to attainments may, during or after their fourth year at the Academy, take their Principal Study and the Training Course in lieu of the ordinary curriculum, for the same fees, viz., £14 14s. per term. Those who have passed the L.R.A.M. Examination in the subject which is their principal study may have this privilege during their third academic year, subject to the approval of the Principal.

A Special Examination for a Diploma certifying ability in Teaching will be held in July in connection with this Course.

The fee for this Examination is £5 5s. and the Diploma may be associated with the L.R.A.M. Diploma (see Special Syllabus; Teachers' Training Course).

SPECIAL DIPLOMA IN TEACHING.

1. All Students who have taken the full Teachers' Training Course in the Royal Academy of Music throughout one Academic Year may sit for an examination in the Teaching of Music (with special reference to their Principal Subject). This Examination will be held at the end of the Midsummer Term.

2. Students who pass this Examination will receive a Diploma signed by the Principal, certifying ability in Teaching, with special reference to their Principal Subject (Pianoforte, Singing, etc.). This Diploma will not be issued to Students under the age of twenty-one, nor to those who are unable to produce evidence of having passed an examination equivalent to matriculation. It will not entitle holders to use any letters after their names (except as stated in paragraph 3 below).

3. Students who are successful in this Examination, and who are Licentiates of the Academy, or who become Licentiates of the Academy in any of the Principal Subjects, will be entitled to describe themselves "L.R.A.M. (Honours)."

4. This Examination and the L.R.A.M. must in each case refer to the same Principal Subject.

5. Students of the Academy who have gained the Certificate of Merit with Distinction in their Principal Subject, and the Special Diploma of the Teachers' Training Course, may be recommended by the Committee of Management to the Directors for the distinction of "Associate (by Examination) of the Royal Academy of Music."

6. The fee for this Examination is Five Guineas.

7. Forms of entry for this Examination, properly filled up, together with the fee of Five Guineas, must be sent so as to reach the Secretary not later than June 1st. No entry will be accepted after this date, unless accompanied by an extra fee of Five Shillings, and no late entries can be accepted in any circumstances after June 13th.

METROPOLITAN EXAMINATION

FOR LICENTIATESHIP (L.R.A.M.).

An examination, independent of Academy teaching, of Musical Composers, Performers, and Teachers, is held at the Academy three times a year—viz., during the Summer, Christmas and Easter Vacations. The fee payable is £5 5s., and successful candidates thereat are created by the Directors LICENTIATES OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC, with the exclusive right to the use after their names of the letters L.R.A.M., and receive Diplomas, signed by the Principal and by one of the Directors, to the effect that they are judged to be qualified to begin practising that branch of the musical profession in which they have been examined.

Students who have obtained the L.R.A.M. and Special Diploma of the Teachers' Training Course (in the same Principal Subject) will be entitled to describe themselves as L.R.A.M. (Honours).

The last day on which names and exercises can be received for Licentiateship Examination will be for the First Period, June 30th; for the Second Period, October 31st; and, for the Third Period, February 14th. With late fee, July 12th, November 12th, and February 28th.

Candidates entering for the Diploma of Licentiate in Pianoforte have the option of being examined in Glasgow or in London, the fee in the former case being £6 6s., in the latter £5 5s. The Examinations will be held at the Scottish National Academy of Music (Inc.) Atheneum Buildings, St. George's Place, Glasgow, C.2, and will be conducted by members of the Staff of the R.A.M. only at Easter and Christmas periods.

For further particulars, see separate Syllabus, which can be obtained on application.

MEMOIR

On the Theory of the Motion of the Moon
by
M. LAPLACE

The motion of the Moon is a subject of great importance in astronomy, and has been the subject of many investigations. The first of these was by Newton, who showed that the Moon's motion could be explained by the law of universal gravitation. This was followed by Halley, who discovered that the Moon's orbit was not a perfect circle, but an ellipse. Laplace's theory is based on the assumption that the Moon's motion is governed by the law of universal gravitation, and that the Earth and Moon are the only bodies in the system. He shows that the Moon's motion can be explained by the law of universal gravitation, and that the Earth and Moon are the only bodies in the system.
